

SUMMARY

I am a LAMP certified college graduate with a varied knowledge base and excellent interpersonal skills. I am looking to utilize my experience to contribute to your organizations success.

TECHNICAL

Project management, UI Design, Ruby, Ruby on Rails, Unix Shell Scripting, MySQL, basic Apache installation and management, LAMP certified, Adobe Photoshop CS3, Dreamweaver, CSS, Adobe Premier, Final Cut Pro, and Microsoft Office.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

2010-Present Web Developer, Storyory
www.storyory.com

I built and maintain Storyory.com. It uses Ruby on Rails 3 and a host of plug-ins including thumbs_up for voting. The site is a collaborative story writing site that is in alpha.

2007-Present Web Developer, Cardboard Tube Fighting League
www.tubeduel.com

I built and maintain the Cardboard Tube Fighting League's website. I built the site using Ruby on Rails 3 and it involves a number of plug-ins including oauth. The site is a hub for Cardboard Tube Dueling events that happen in Sydney Australia, Bristol England, San Paulo Brazil, Tokyo Japan, Toronto Canada, and all over North America.

2007-2009 Creative Development, Human Creativity Project
www.creative.ly

For three years I worked as one of the founders of an internet start-up called the Human Creativity Project. I worked most heavily doing project management and UI design. I also filled in on a number of duties including helping with both front- and back-end development.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

2010-Present Board Game Specialist, Gamescape
www.gamescapesf.net

While attending school to receive my LAMP certificate, I began working at San Francisco's largest board game store. My duties include selling games, describing and teaching games to customers, basic store maintenance, and restocking merchandise.

2003-2005 Homeless Youth Program Coordinator, University Family YMCA
www.udsp.org

For two years I ran all aspects of a "low barrier" meal and drop-in program for homeless youth between 13-25 year olds. My work involved program development and expansion of services along with managing three staff and up to 20 volunteers.

EDUCATION

2010-2011 LAMP Fundamentals Certificate, City College of San Francisco (4.00 GPA)
2000-2002 Bachelor of Arts, Film and Digital Media, University California Santa Cruz
